Encl: (1) Highlights of the NAMP

1. Purpose. The NAMP outlines the command, administrative and management relationships of the aviation maintenance workforce and establishes policies and procedures for governing the management of all naval aviation maintenance.

2. Cancellation. Reference (a), including Change Transmittals (CH-1 and CH-2), is cancelled. NAMP Interim Changes references (b) through (f) are also cancelled. All deviations previously authorized to reference (a) shall be reviewed for currency.

3. Scope. The NAMP applies to all organizations operating or supporting Navy and Marine Corps manned and unmanned aircraft and related equipment. Additionally, the NAMP is applicable to Marine Air Traffic Control and Landing System (MATCALS) activities and items classified as Aeronautical Expeditionary Airfield (EAF) equipment.

4. Discussion. Enclosure (1) highlights the major changes incorporated into the NAMP, and should be reviewed by all activities.

5. Implementation. Activities shall download the NAMP from the COMNAVAIRSYSCOM website at:
<http://www.navair.navy.mil/logistics/4790>. Under unique circumstances, activities may request a CD-ROM copy of the NAMP from COMNAVAIRFOR (Code N422).

JUN 06 2012

6. Effective date. All provisions of COMNAVAIRFORINST 4790.2B are effective as of 15 May 2012.

7. Action. All directives and instructions in conflict with the provisions of this instruction shall be revised to ensure conformity. Recommended deviations, changes, or corrections to the policies and procedures in this instruction shall be submitted using procedures contained in the NAMP, Chapter 1.

8. Forms. Forms prescribed by the NAMP are listed in Appendix B.
