Title: Leading with Purpose - Take Decisive Action

College: CLIO - <https://navairu.navair.navy.mil/>

School: CLIO

Program of Study: Communications

Description:

This 2-day workshop provides you techniques and best practices on how to Think, Act and Perform as a leader. "Leading with Purpose" is a hands-on, interactive course which will provide you with techniques and best practices on how to make quicker decisions, act in the face of incomplete information, reduce procrastination, gain confidence in making quicker decisions, and learn additional decision making experience.

The second day of this course LAB only. You must register for the LAB via NAVAIRU CLIO course number CLIO-60-41. This interactive class provides you the support of a performance coach who will privately deliver immediate feedback and reinforcement on learned skills applied through exercise simulations.
