

The DD254 & You

NAVAIR Small Business Aviation Technology Conference

8 November 2007

Presented by:

Joyce K. Foca

P-8A Poseidon Program Security Manager

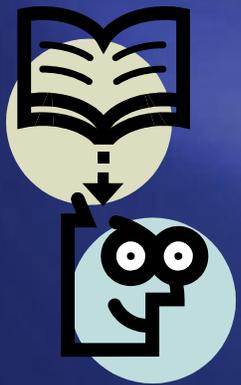

NAVAIR Public Release 690

Distribution Statement A – "Approved for public release; distribution is unlimited"

Remember...

To do great important tasks,
Three things are necessary.....

1. A Plan

2. Not quite enough time

3. Small Business Contracts

Why Are We Here?

- To help you understand:
 - Access & Performance requirements of classified contracts
 - The Facility Clearance (FCL) process;
 - Personnel Security Clearances (PCL)
 - The Contract Security Classification Specification (DD254)
 - To explain your security responsibilities

Classified Information is:

- Information determined to require protection in the interests of our national security.
- Owned by, produced by or for, or under the control of the U.S. Government.
- Determined to require protection against unauthorized disclosure
- Is so designated (TS, S & C)

Facility Clearances

NAV AIR

- Don't need an Facility Clearance (FCL) when submitting a proposal if classified access won't occur prior to award
 - We can't limit competition
 - Security Team submits Request for FCL on award
- Getting a Facility Clearance (FCL)
 - Key Management Personnel (KMP)
 - Senior Management and Facility Security Officer (FSO)
 - Employees cannot have access until company has been granted an FCL
 - Difference between clearance and access
 - 'Negotiators' can be submitted simultaneously with KMPs

WHY DO YOU NEED A DD254?

“The Official Response”

“The security of the U.S. depends, in part, on the proper safeguarding of classified information released to industry. (The National Industrial Security Program) established by E.O 12829 to assure the safeguarding of classified information in the hands of U.S. industrial organizations, educational institutions, and all organizations and facilities (both prime and sub-contractors).”

Arthur L. Money - Senior Civilian DoD Official
Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense-C3I

“In other words....”

To make sure 12M classified documents
released to over 12,000 cleared facilities are protected!

Classified Contracts impose access & performance limitations on Contractors

How do you do that?

(DD254-Contract Security Classification Specification)

• DD 254

- ONLY authorized means for providing security requirements and classification guidance to a contractor
- "Commanding Officers shall ensure that a DD254 is incorporated into every classified contract."
- Any contract that requires or will require access to classified information, by a contractor in the performance of a contract
 - All phases of pre-contract activity through award
 - » Solicitations; Bids; Quotations; Proposals
- Can ONLY be signed by a Contracting Officer's Security Representative (COSR)/Security COR

What Does the DD254 Tell Us?

NAV AIR

- A Contractor's Need-To-Know
 - A determination made by an authorized holder of classified information that a prospective recipient, in the interest of National Security, has a requirement for access to, knowledge, or possession of the classified information in order to perform tasks or services essential to the fulfillment of an official U.S. government program.

- Unauthorized disclosure:
 - A communication or physical transfer of classified Information or controlled unclassified information to an unauthorized recipient.

- Unauthorized Recipient:
 - An individual who is not cleared and/or does not have a need-to-know in order to perform their official duties.

What Does the DD254 Tell Us (con't)

- Classification Guidance
 - Security Classification Guides
- Security Requirements
 - What level of information can be accessed for this effort
 - Where contractor can have access
 - Distribution Statements required on technical documents created by the contractor
 - Requirements not addressed in the NISPOM
 - (OPSEC, OSD requirements, SECNAV/Local Command Instructions.

QUESTIONS & ANSWERS

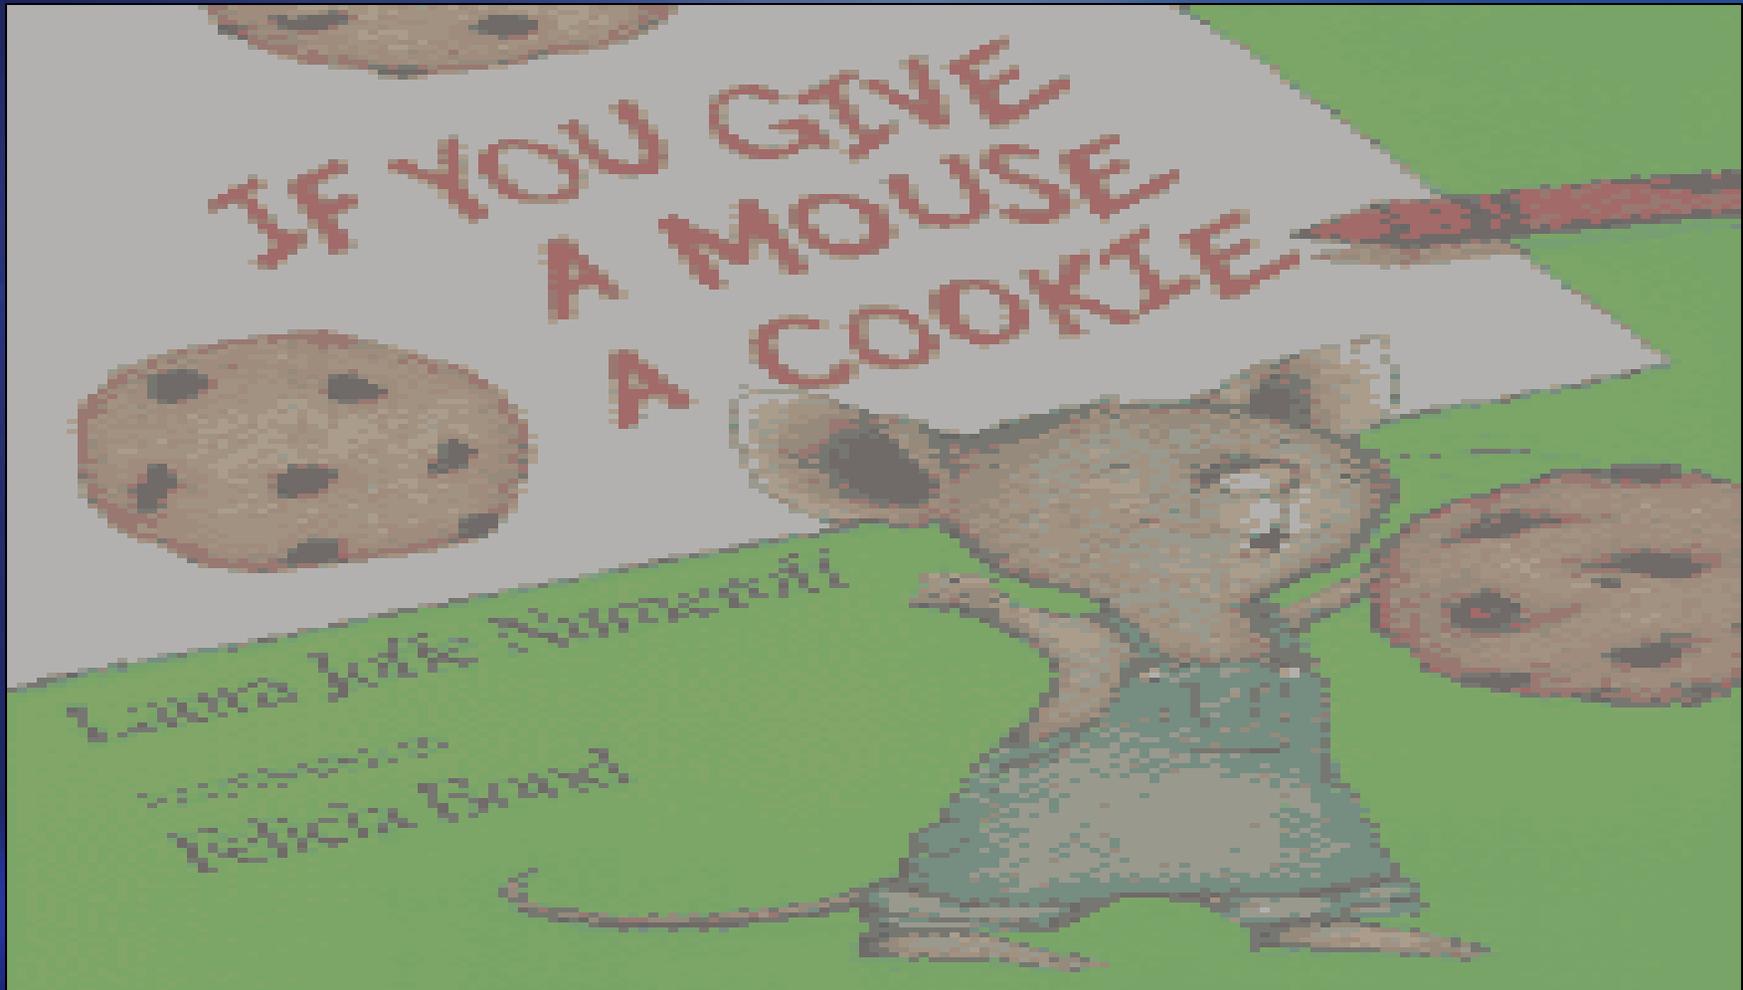

COOKIES.....

- How will I get you to remember what you've learned today?
- My grandson's would say.....Bobchi, please read me a story.....

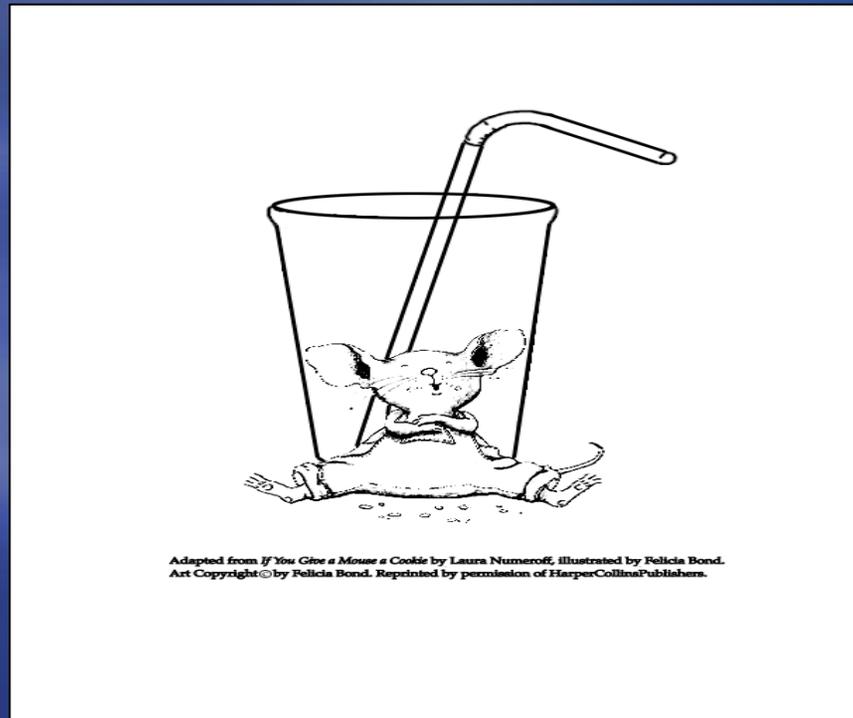

To help you remember....

He's going to ask for.....

A glass of milk....

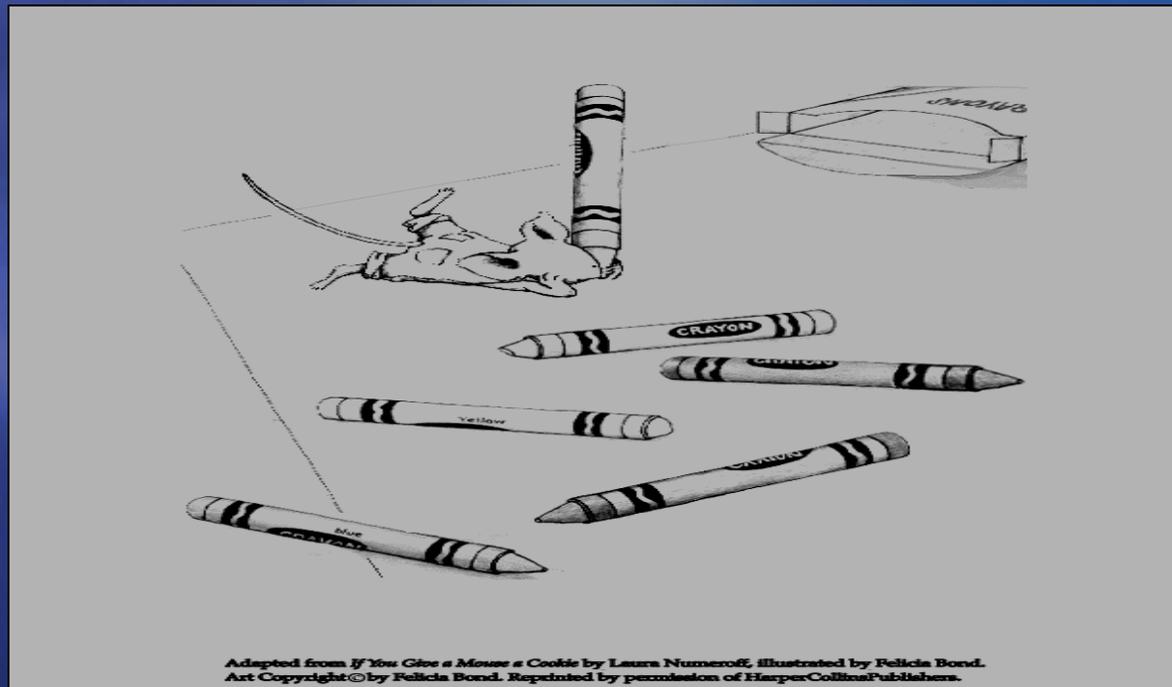

...then he'll want you to read him a story

When he sees the pictures...

he'll want paper and crayons...

...he'll draw a picture and want to hang it on your refrigerator...

So.....

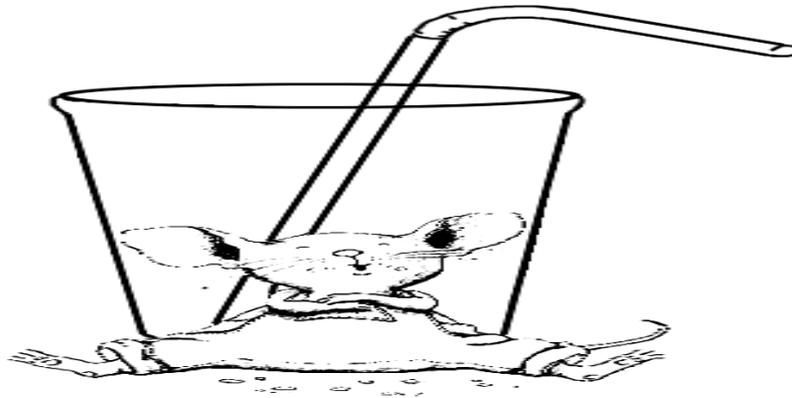

He'll hang up his drawing, and stand back to look at it.....
Looking at the refrigerator will remind him, he's thirsty...

And chances are....
If he asks for a glass of milk...
he'll want a cookie to go with it!

I'm not comparing contractors to mice but forming an analogy between contractors being given classified information and a mouse being given a cookie and wanting more and more.....
