

Asian-American/Pacific Islander Heritage Month Event: 17 May

Join us for NAVAIR's national celebration of Asian-American/Pacific Islander Heritage Month, co-sponsored by the Asian-American/Pacific Islander diversity team and NAVAIR's Equal Employment Opportunity & Diversity Division, with a theme of "Walk Together, Embrace Differences, and Build Legacies."

Keynote speaker Dr. Ruth Chang is best known for her work on making hard choices in your personal and professional life. Her TED talk on this topic has had more than 3 million views. At this event, you'll examine how to become better leaders, better teammates and better individuals through making hard choices. Dr. Chang serves as a professor of philosophy at Rutgers University and has spoken to groups ranging from private industry and nonprofit agencies to the World Bank.

Event details:

- Date: Tuesday, 17 May
- Time: 1300-1500 EST
- Place: River's Edge Catering & Conference Center, Patuxent River, and via national video teleconference

Registration details:

Visit NAVAIR University and search for course number CISL-EVT-0119.