

CIVILITY IN THE WORKPLACE TRAINING

Civility in the Workplace Training: Civility is a timely concern, and a civil workplace can help to mitigate stress and increase collaboration. This presentation highlights the importance of civil behaviors, and reviews skills and techniques needed to build and create civility in the workplace.

Event Details:

Date: Thursday, 4 June 2015

Time: 1030 - 1130

Topic: Civility in the Workplace (Course #50552900)

Location: Employee Development Center, Building 2189, Room 152

PAX River team employees should submit a planned training request through the Navy ERP Portal via: <https://ep.erp.navy.mil>. Select "NAVAIR Course Catalog" then "Personal Development". Your local contact for questions regarding this training can be reached at (301) 342-3913.