

If a light is on in an empty room and no one is around to see it, does it still use energy?

YES!

Help the Navy reduce energy costs, turn off lights when rooms are no longer occupied and your computer and surge protector at the end of each work day.

Thanks for doing your part to make our workplace more financially efficient.

